Fall Meeting and Bulb Swap, Middle Tennessee Daffodil Society – Sunday, October, 29, 2017 – 1 p.m. – Cheekwood Botanical Gardens – Potter Room – Nashville, TN

Join us in the Potter Room in the Visitor Services building at Cheekwood on Sunday the 29th for our fall meeting and bulb swap. All current members will receive free bulbs from the John Reed (Oakwood Daffodils) dig and from other members' gardens. Even if you don't have bulbs to bring, you will receive many free bulbs. If you are not current in your dues, you need only pay $20 annual dues, your membership will be good for a year and you will receive free bulbs. If you are not sure of your membership status, we will have an updated membership list at the meeting and you can renew if needed.

The 2017 Fall Forum and Board Meeting will take place in Cincinnati, Ohio, on November 10-12, 2018. Go to the ADS home page to find a link for more information.

The Middle Tennessee Daffodil Society (MTDS) will celebrate our 60th anniversary by hosting the ADS National Convention in the Greater Nashville TN area from April 5 – 8, 2018. The Convention and Show will be located at the Franklin Marriott Cool Springs, 700 Cool Springs Blvd., Franklin TN 37067. For more information visit daffodilusa.org or daffodiltn.org. Don't miss this chance to attend a national daffodil convention so close to home!

If you have not signed up for a specific task and would like to volunteer to help with the 2018 Convention that MTDS is hosting, please contact Suzanne Shambaugh at: noogats@comcast.net.
