

AMERICAN DAFFODIL SOCIETY (ADS) 2018 SILVER MEDAL RECIPIENT ANNOUNCED!

Franklin, TN – Glenna Graves from Harrisonburg, VA was awarded the 2018 American Daffodil Society Silver Medal on April 6, 2018 at the American Daffodil Society Convention in Franklin, TN.

The American Daffodil Society Silver Medal may be awarded to an individual deemed by the honors committee as being worthy of recognition for outstanding service to the American Daffodil Society.

Glenna Graves has a long history of doing every job that needs doing to further the ADS and the appreciation of daffodils, always without seeking attention or credit for her work. She held the position of Daffodil Chair for the Garden Club of Virginia for eight years, a job that included running one of the largest daffodil shows in the country. She has performed the same role for many years with the Washington Daffodil Society. Her leadership and hard work were obvious to all when she was show chair for the 2017 National Convention in Sacramento, CA. But even more impressive is the way she always steps up to do any job whether it's calling lapsed members, wrapping judges' gifts, or making table arrangements--endlessly and selflessly giving her time and attention to make things better.

Glenna has been a mentor to many and won many friends within the daffodil world. Her gracious manner and vast knowledge make her an excellent teacher both in one-on-one encounters and as an accredited ADS judging instructor. She's also a keen show exhibitor, with major awards at the regional and national levels.

The American Daffodil Society has a tradition of honoring individuals who have contributed to the betterment of daffodils and the American Daffodil Society. Ms. Graves has a long history of meritorious service. She joins a prestigious group of individuals who have given, and continue to donate, their exceptional service to the American Daffodil Society.
