FRONT COVER

The front cover illustration is taken from a pen and wash drawing of Foundling by Marie Bozievich which she produced for our 1973 catalogue. Marie died on 31st January, 1999.

I met her at the R.H.S. spring show in the early seventies, looking tall and elegant in a smart trouser suit. Nell Richardson had already asked me to travel with her to the early Williamsburg convention and Marie persuaded me to go – my first visit to the U.S.A. Marie took me back for a few days to her beautiful home where I met her husband John and saw all her show flowers, the first of many visits to Bethesda. She also came to stay with us at Carncairn and we roomed together at many conventions. She was president of the A.D.S. and won many awards on the show bench. She was a ballet teacher, artist, and gardener par excellence with an impish sense of humour. A very great friend. Robin and I are dedicating this 1999 catalogue to her memory.

A truly beautiful poet which we have grown for many years, and which has picked up a few prizes. 1998 was a very successful year for it, winning prizes in Belfast where it got best unregistered seedling in the open classes and in Omagh best Div. 5-9. It was also good enough to pick up a rosette at the N.I.D.G. late show. We are grateful to Arthur Robinson who sent us the seed. Breeding Como x Andrew Marvel.

- 1w-p NICK'S PINK 2-3 (Carncairn) Seedling 1/12/88. A very early flowering pink with a large expanding trumpet. Breeding seedling 5/2/74 (which came from another pink seedling x Gracious Lady) – open pollinated. It is very interesting to note that Gracious Lady was only registered in 1974 so we must have used a flower from the London show to get the pollen. Mrs. Richardson allowed us to bring any flowers we admired home. Seed sown by our grandson Nicholas.
Each £20/$34
- 2w-p CARNKEERAN 3-4 (Carncairn) Sdg. No. 8/11/86. A large flower which one cannot pass in the field without a closer look. It has a darker pink ring at the base of the corona which fades to a yellowish pink at the edge. A useful flower for late shows. Breeding Dailmanach x Quiet Day.
Each £20/$34
- 2w-gpp QUIET ANN 2-3 (Tarry/Carncairn) Sdg. No. 19/5/85. Another large pink but mid season. It was second in a Div. 2 class in Hillsborough 1998. This flower has a beautiful eye resembling Rose Royale with a dark rim of pink at the base of the corona which is a paler pink as it expands. Seed given to us by George Tarry. Breeding Ann Cameron x Quiet Day.
