NEW RELEASES 2007/08

OHAU ROSA 2w-p (Capree Elizabeth x Filoli)

A medium size flower with great substance and form. The ivory white petals are round and of good substance. The long corona is deep rosy pink. The flower has a strong stem and neck. An eye catching flower which has exhibition qualities. Mid-late $40.00

PORTLAND HEAD 1y-o

A double triangle yellow perianth, set off with a large impressive orange trumpet. This is a good strong flower, which is very showable, but it also has the potential as a breeding flower. (Mid) $35.00

OHAU BRILLIANCE 1y-o (Orange Roughie x Glenfarclas)

Another excellent yellow-orange trumpet from us. The flower has deep yellow, well overlapped petals and an orange trumpet. Very showable, with the potential as a breeding flower. (Early-mid) $35.00

PACIFIC WAVES 3o-o (Red Ember x Achduart)

This is a very round flower with soft orange tones in the petals and a small bright orange cup. A tall stem and good neck. The flower is very consistent and of exhibitions quality. (Mid) $20.00

OHAU SPLENDOR 1w-p (Vahu x Silver Convention)

A large flower of good form and substance, with a tall stem and good neck. The perianth is pure white and the trumpet opens a pale lemon, changing to a soft pink. This is an attractive show flower. Limited stock (Early-mid) $40.00

MORNING VIEW 1y-p (Sun n Snow x Elko)

A much admired large yellow pink trumpet. The double triangle, well overlapped petals are a soft creamy yellow which is offset by a soft pink trumpet. The flower is consistent and of show quality. (Mid) $35.00

BETSY MacDONALD 6w-p

(Foundling x Tangent)

A late flowering cyclamineus. The well reflexed perianth is broad and well overlapped to show off the vibrant pink corona. Limited stock $20.00
