DAFFODIL STUDY AND SHOW SCHOOL COURSE # 1

Sponsored by the Southeast Region AMERICAN DAFFODIL SOCIETY

Registration Fee: $3.00

A Daffodil Study and show school consisting of three courses, one to be given each year for three years has been designed to teach the exhibitor as well as the potential judge how to grow, evaluate and properly exhibit his blooms. This is valuable information for all daffodil growers, whether or not they intend to become judges. Course # 1 is the first in a series of three to be held in the southeast region.

Sunday, March 30, 1958

- 10:00 A.M. Study of the divisions and sub-divisions of the daffodil as classified by the Royal Horticultural society 1950
- 11:00 A.M. Elementary Culture of the daffodil. General characteristics of the daffodil; to include color, stem, form, pose, foliage, substance and texture, size and condition.
- 12:00 A.M. Lunch period -- On your own
- 1:00 P.M. Identification of daffodils with point scoring, class participation.
- 2:00 P.M. Written examination and judging a small daffodil show.

Tis we who be of simple mind And work in gardens, always find While bending o'er the lowly sod The gifts and handiwork of God.
