

GOLD MEDAL CITATION TO JUDGE CAREY QUINN

The American Daffodil Society Gold Medal Award for 1962 is presented to a man who has been given the name of Mr. Daffodil by one of our largest growers, saying that the work and efforts of this man was one of the largest contributions to the use of daffodils in this country.

He was the first president of the ADS and was chairman of our first convention in Washington in 1956. He was also editor of our Yearbook for several years.

His book, "Daffodils—Outdoors and In", was the first on daffodils to be published in the United States for many years. It is written not in such scientific terms as only a few can understand and appreciate, but one couched in such words that everyone from the beginner to the fancier can gain knowledge and become a better grower of daffodils.

He devised the symposium of daffodil varieties similar to that published today in the ADS Yearbook, for the purpose of supplying gardeners over the country the answer to the pertinent question, "what to buy".

It is with great pride that we award the Gold Medal of the ADS for 1962 to Judge Carey E. Quinn.
