

NOTICES

- * The Daffodil Show will begin Judging at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, March 18, 1965. All entries must be in place by then. The Daffodil Show will remain throughout the Convention dates at Descanso Gardens in La Canada.
- ** A Non-competitive Display of Daffodils will be on display throughout the Convention in the Mezzanine Room (air-conditioned). Growers Catalogs will be available in Parlor Room 234, up a half flight of stairs from the Mezzanine Room.
- *** A Daffodil Boutique will be open in the East Room from 9:00-12:00 a.m. each day throughout the Convention. Available items for sale will be on display, such as aprons, cups and saucers, stationery, tote bags, and objects using the Daffodil motif.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Convention Committee gratefully acknowledges the generous donations of fine Daffodil Bulbs for display during this Convention at Descanso Gardens, The Arboretum and The Huntington-Sheraton Hotel from Mr. Grant E. Mitsch, Mr. Murray Evans, and The Puget Sound Bulb Exchange.

We are grateful to Mrs. J. Lionel Richardson, Mr. W. J. Dunlop, Mr. Grant E. Mitsch and Mr. Allen W. Davis for sending their new and outstanding varieties of Daffodils for the Non-competitive display.

We wish to thank Mrs. Louise Fort Linton for arriving early at the Convention to arrange this lovely display of flowers, and Mr. Willis M. Wheeler for his part in expediting the flowers upon arrival from overseas. The special risers and tube-holders for this exhibit were made especially for the Convention by Mr. James Fortner.

To each and everyone else, who gave so untiringly of their time, talent, and energy for the success of this Convention we are most deeply grateful.
