2013 List of Specialty Daffodils

This is our fourth year of putting out our daffodil list and we wish to thank all that help support this effort. We are concerned that the number of growers is shrinking and the specialty bulbs are becoming less available. This year we are offering fifty varieties new to our list with the inclusion of two of our own breeding. The first is 'Uncle Bob' 2YYW-WWP an Intermediate which registers 78mm. The second is a late flowering mini poet called 'Trego' 9W-GYR. We are also pleased to have some very special flowers bred by Bob Spotts and Mary Lou Gripshover. Bob has allowed us to sell a very limited stock of his green wonder 'Mesa Verde' a 12G-G. And Mary Lou has also given us a limited stock of her pristine white 'Ohio Valley' 1W-W. Clay Higgins has found that his new home in North Carolina is a perfect habitat for miniatures and has given us a list of ones to sell as well.

If you are getting this list online then to view each flower on Daffseek simply click on the flower name and you will be hyperlinked to the appropriate page to see its description and picture. If you are getting this by mail then go to www.daffodilusa.org and at the bottom of the opening page is the link to Daffseek which you can use to look up each flower. Many thanks to Ben Blake & Nancy Tackett for this great resource! The ADS website is one of the best in the gardening world.

We had no problems with the USPS shipping last year and will continue to include insurance in the shipping costs to make sure there are no losses this coming year.

We hope you can find something that you just must have! The daffodil has changed our lives by the wonderful people who grow and breed them with the whole world as its garden. We were so very fortunate to go to the World Convention in Dunedin New Zealand to see some amazing flowers and meet fellow fanatics from all over the world. And we also went to our own National Convention in Columbus, Ohio this year to see the best daffodils of the United States and experience the wonderful hospitality of the Mid West folks.

Please place your orders by August 15th 2012!

Thanks so much, Mitch and Kate
