MTDS Winter Update

'Miss Muffit' 1 Y-Y in bloom (above) on January 13, 2020 in middle Tennessee. N. viridiflorus Manuel Lima seedling NVC1 (below left) and a couple of bulbocodium hybrids (Division 10 daffodils, below right) are also in bloom as well as a few jonquil seedlings and unknown yellow trumpets.

Middle Tennessee Daffodil Society

Established April 5, 1958 to promote the appreciation and cultivation of daffodils. Membership is open to anyone interested in daffodils.

Visit Middle Tennessee Daffodil Society at www.daffodiltn.org and on Facebook.

Hello, |FNAME|.

Please note that the MTDS Spring Meeting is coming up much earlier than usual: Sunday, February 23, 2:00, at Cheekwood in the Potter Room of Botanic Hall.

This is due to Cheekwood's blocking out certain months (including March) for Plant Society meetings.

Our show this year is the Southeast Regional Show and will be held March 28-29 at Cheekwood.

Come to the February 23 meeting to learn more about the show, how to enter flowers or how to help out with the show, and for a hands-on flower dissection to learn how flowers are pollinated to produce seeds. (Did you know you can grow daffodils from seed?)

If your membership is expired, you may renew at the meeting or at the show ($20 Individual, $25 Family, $30 Group) or visit the MTDS Website at daffodiltn.org for information on how to renew by mail.

The 2020 Antiques and Garden Show is this weekend, January 31 - February 2 at the Music City Center, Nashville

Use the MTDS group discount code: MTD20 for $5 off General Admission
