

http://www.ncnewsonline.com/news/lifestyles/daffodil-smile-completes-easter-season/article\_53cc4941-d1c3-5655-a26c-9b3ada1bcfff.html

Daffodil smile completes Easter season

Apr 24, 2019

Kris Stabryla of Chewton grew a smile from daffodils this spring.

contributed

Kris Stabryla of Chewton is all smiles over his latest adventure with daffodil bulbs.

Finding himself in possession of “a bushel full of bulbs,” Stabryla decided to do something creative — he planted a smile.

Armed with 10 feet of rope, Stabryla of Chewton-West Pittsburg Road, Wampum, put a pin in the middle and measured a circle, planting daffodil bulbs two- to three-inches apart. He then plotted placement of two eyes and a mouth.

“You really need to see this from higher up,” he said. “But it’s a smile.”

5/6/2019

Daffodil smile completes Easter season | Lifestyles | ncnewsonline.com

He anticipates the smile will grow fuller in the second and third year.

“About three years ago I planted a peace sign,” he said. “That filled in great and it’s easier to see what is is.

0 comments