Title: Hope and Love

Daffodils are the symbol of Hope. In my imagination each of these DIFFERENT daffodils represents an individual person. Hoping Love will someday bring us all together

Title: Rescued

Tightly packed clumps of N. x medioluteus, a fragrant Division 13 beauty.

This photo tells the story of rescue, appreciation, and second chances. In spring of 2018, my husband dug these from the yard of a long-abandoned, falling-down home. He stopped in the woods on our driveway road, with our home in the background. He removed the clumps from the truck bed, separated the blooms and re-planted them on the spot. The bulbs have survived and thrived! They were given new life and have provided much joy.
