Hello my friends

I'll start out on the Convention winners with the Minis so there's not so very much in a single post. There will be quite a bit more in the standard winners post. Exciting to see all the varieties from the mini hybridizers both Esker and from America.

Please enjoy!

The Mini "Best in Show" which was also the Mini Rose ribbon winner for best mini seedling. Exhibited by Larry Force.

The Mini White Ribbon winner for the best 3 stem miniature entry in show. The Flower is "Xit" exhibited by Diane Spence.

The Innovators Award. EF50 by Esker Farm Daffodils.

The Mini Red White and Blue for the best entry of 5 minis bred in America. Exhibited by Harold Koopowitz.

The Lavender Award winner for the best 5 stem mini entry in show. Exhibited by Mitch and Kate Carney. The flowers are Happy Days, Snipe, Heidi's Sister, Wee Dryad, and Little Dote.

The Laurus award for the best 3 stem mini in the Hybridizers section. Exhibited by Esker Farms Daffodils. EF50 by Esker Farm Daffodils.

3 Minis by the Hybridizer. Exhibited by Harold Koopowitz. The flowers are 2008-037-2, 99-224-5, and 'Itsy Bitsy Splitsy'

6 Minis by the Hybridizer, exhibited by Harold Koopowitz

The Bankhead Award for best collection of 9 minis from several divisions. Exhibited by Mary Lou Gripshover.

12 by the hybridizer, exhibited by Harold Koopowitz.

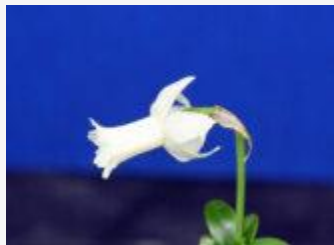

The Koopowitz Award, for the best 24 stem entry, by the hybridizer. Exhibited by Harold Koopowitz.

1st place 5 stem mini entry. Exhibited by Mitch & Kate Carney a Koopowitz Pink Petalled seedling.

Little Dryad taken from the Lavender. Not often noted in shows. Exhibited by the Carneys.
