This show offers a trophy for either a 5 stem white collection or 5 stem pink collection. How many decades have I been entering this show and never knew. It just so happened that I couldn't enter the 12 stem American bred trophy offer after 2 flowers died on the drive (I was NOT happy), so I threw this in at the last minute and won this trophy which is the winners name on a silver bowl. There's only 4 named engravings on this bowl. what an Irony. The flowers are American Heritage, Silent Pink, Color Magic, Seedling & Pink China.

The Red White and Blue Award for the best collection of 5 blooms all bred in America was this collection with flowers of: Charles's Pride, Margaret's Grace, Pacific Rim, French Classic and seedling.

The Carey E. Quinn Award for the best collection of 24 Standard Daffodils from at least 5 divisions. Exhibited by the Kuduks.

The Lavender Award for the best 5 stem collection of Mini Daffs, was exhibited by Kathleen Simpson with flowers of, Itsy Bitsy Splitzy, Little Kibler, Angels Breath, Englander & Jumble.

The Intermediate 5 stem award, exhibited by Kathleen Simpson contained the flowers of, Eden Park, Curley, My Sweetheart, Rimski & Pink China.
