

2023 St Joseph Valley Daffodil Society Show Wins

by Tom Stettner, Ohio • June 1, 2023 • 0 Comments

Click any photo to see a larger view

The St Joseph Valley Daffodil Show is thanks to Dan Bellinger who resurrected Dr John Reeds show as this is pretty much in Johns neighborhood at the Fernwood Bot Gardens in Niles Michigan. For those who might wonder, this show does not offer any ADS Classic awards. The next show will be my last post for this year. Joe Hamms show is the season finale' and the party show. Sad sad sad.. :-(

The Gold Ribbon winner, triple crown, From the White Ribbon Winner, exhibited by Kit Walter.

The White Ribbon for the best 3 stem of a standard daffodil. Triple Crown, exhibited by Kit Walter. the top bloom was also Best in Show.

The Mini Gold winner for best mini single stem in show. Sun Disc, From Suzy Werts Watrous.

the Mini white ribbon for the best 3 stem mini in show was Sun Disc, exhibited by Sue Luken.

the Standard Rose Ribbon for the best seedling in show was this entry by Dan Bellinger.

the Intermediate Single Stem award, Causeway Julie, exhibited by Dan Bellinger.

The best Single Stem Youth award, American Cowboy, was taken from the 5 stem youth winner by Adalee Wendorf.

The 3 stem youth award, Bon Viveur, exhibited by Adalee Wendorf.

The 5 stem youth award, by Adalee Wendorf, with flowers of American Cowboy, Oregon Sunset, Baily, Fireonice & Louise Randal.

Adalee with her Winning ADS Awards. 5 Stem Youth and Best Single Stem Youth.

The Intermediate 3 stem award, Fiery Arrow, exhibited by Suzy Wert.

The Historic Single Stem award, Minuet, exhibited by Sue Luken.

The 3 stem Historic award, Thalia, exhibited by Lisa Robinson.

The red white and blue award for the best 5 stem entry of standard daffodils, all bred in America, was exhibited by Dan Bellinger with flowers of Gull Island, Stacy Humm, 18.3.2, Anna Kamiesta Open Pollenated, Harlow Creek and Stanard Rock.

The Intermediate 5 stem collection winner, by Julie Martin with flowers of Reed seedling, Birthday Girl, Georgie Pie, Macilynn and Pink Sunday.

The Throckmorton Award for the best entry of 15 different standard Daffodils from 15 different classifications. exhibited by Julie Martin.

the Cary E Quinn award for the best entry of 24 stems of standard Daffodils from at least 5 divisions. Exhibited by Julie Martin.

The Mini Rose for best mini seedling in Show was this entry by Suzy Wert.

The Lavender award win for best 5 stem mini in show. exhibited by Suzy Wert. 1st 2 flowers are Reed seedling and Crevette.

The Mini Red White and Blue award for the best mini 5 stem of all American bred minis was exhibited by Suzy Wert with flowers of: Woodstar, Reed Seedling, Gee Willikers, Little Rusky, and Wert Seedling.

The Watrous Award for 12 minis from several divisions. Exhibited by Suzy Wert.

the Havens Award for 12 stems from divisions 5 through 9 only. Exhibited by Suzy Wert.

the Bozie award, exhibited by Julie Martin.