

Nancy R. Wilson
Species and Miniature Narcissus
2 February 2012

Dear Friends,

This has been our best season. Vibrant colors, healthy bulbs, and prolific bloom. Jerry and I are sitting back and enjoying our flowers. If you wish something that we have offered in the past, inquire. We are downsizing the collection and only keeping the favorites and rarest. I am especially honored that so many of you took my ADS Judging Schools and have gone on to be excellent judges. It is always a thrill when I see your names in print. The best fun of daffodils is the friends made and the trips to far off countries where there are more daffodils and newly found friends who, in turn, come and visit you. Thank you all for your kind words and keen interests.

Walter Blom introductions for 2011

We have enjoyed introducing Walter Blom's flowers for many years. He is an avid grower who dearly loves daffodils and has spent much of his later life hybridizing. This year he is introducing some sought after divisions of daffodils that are very useful as show entries and in the garden.

Making his bulbs available has been exciting. It has broadened growers interest in showing small flowers. They have been included in several of the new Miniature Collections in shows

- 12-4 'Bunnie Bee' 6 Y-Y, upright foliage, deep yellow cyclamineus form, "a beauty"$30.00
